*Présence: the Earth Star Chakra
A project created by Capucine
for the Shapeshifter
July 2020*

Today we dive deep into the Earth, we go and reach on the outer layers of our own Earth: our Auric field.

See, Source, you, the Earth, everyone you meet, we all have an energetic field in constant motions: shifting, flowing, from polar ends to the other, flowing up and down our pillar of chakras.

Root, sacral, solar plexus, heart, thymus, throat, zeal, third eye, crown (and many more). One of the additional points that regulates our connection to our Home Planet (for this incarnation at least) is the Earth Star.

Today is the first time we will journey out of the physical body, with the Zeal Chakra we were in our skull, with the Thymus we were near our Sternum by the Thymus Gland.

Going out, means we need protection. We never ever leave and journey without a strong foundation for both our body we will leave here, or our astral body we will fly with.

I will teach you the Maharic Shield technique, something to sustain the 12 dimensional body.

It's best to activate your Maharic Shield once you wake up, and before going to sleep at night.

We will meet our Merkabah, our Chariot, our own Spaceship for Inner and Outer Earth travels.

To get you in the mood:
Sounds of our Home Planet:
Earth's sound from Space

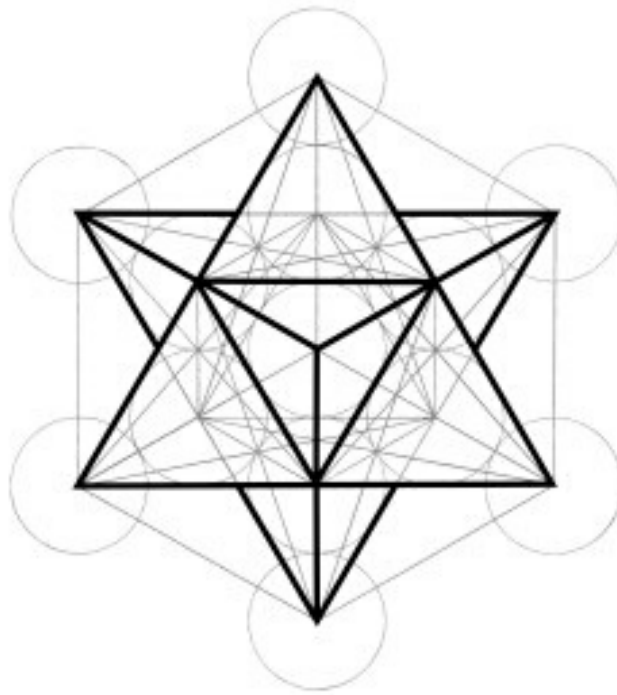

This is the Star of David /
The 2D Merkabah

The Hierophant Symbol (Tarot Card n5, the Pope / the Teacher, the Outer Manifestation of the High Priestess: the External Spirituality; Rituals, Sacred Experiences)

This is what we use in the Maharic Shield Creation.
Consult the Video on our Website.

With our Merkabah, we view the star of David in 3D.
Two spinning pyramids.

One pointed upwards, the other pointed downwards.

And they spin differently. One clockwise, one counter clockwise.

Take your time to build, sense, see this inside of your mind, then rise up, rise up to your travels. Your Interdimensional Travel Chariot is ready.

Shungite
is carbon + fullerenes

Fullerene C₆₀ is the most famous, it consists of 60 carbon atoms:

this is the only natural material where fullerenes have been discovered

Chemical composition of real shungite:

Unique Carbon: ~30% – 60%

Silicon oxide: ~45%

Complex silicates (mica, chlorides): ~20%

Sulfites: ~3%

Do we believe density is the strongest expression of energy?

As in strength is in the most concentrate?

Just like the atomic gave us the nuclear?

It depends.

The beauty of having Reiki / of being a bridge of energy is that we can call forth consciousness.

Everything is conscious.

I'd like to let you know, visualisation is beyond a magical act: becoming really good at it is the training of your mind's attention, of what it can sustain. Working with symbols is only the beginning.

Together right now we will create this Shungite formation around us, adding the fullerenes to our Carbon body.

(nb: Shungite is widely used to combat EMFs, 5G etc-go grab a piece)

We are Carbon. Our organs are made out of carbon. What we eat is made out of carbon.

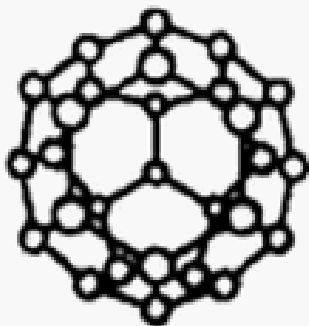

We are minerals, moving, children of stars.

The project of adding fullerenes and becoming Shungite is to be portals to ourselves, centers of health and flow.

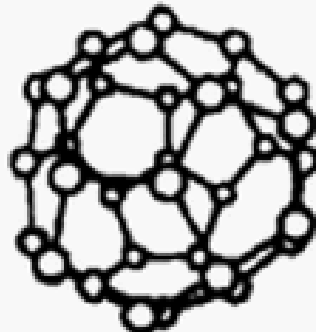

Fullerenes are used widely in medicine.
(Read more, this is what I channeled and now I see confirmed (gold loving tears))

And so we will create this formation, within, between us, and coincidentally, link into a new grid, for Earth, for us.

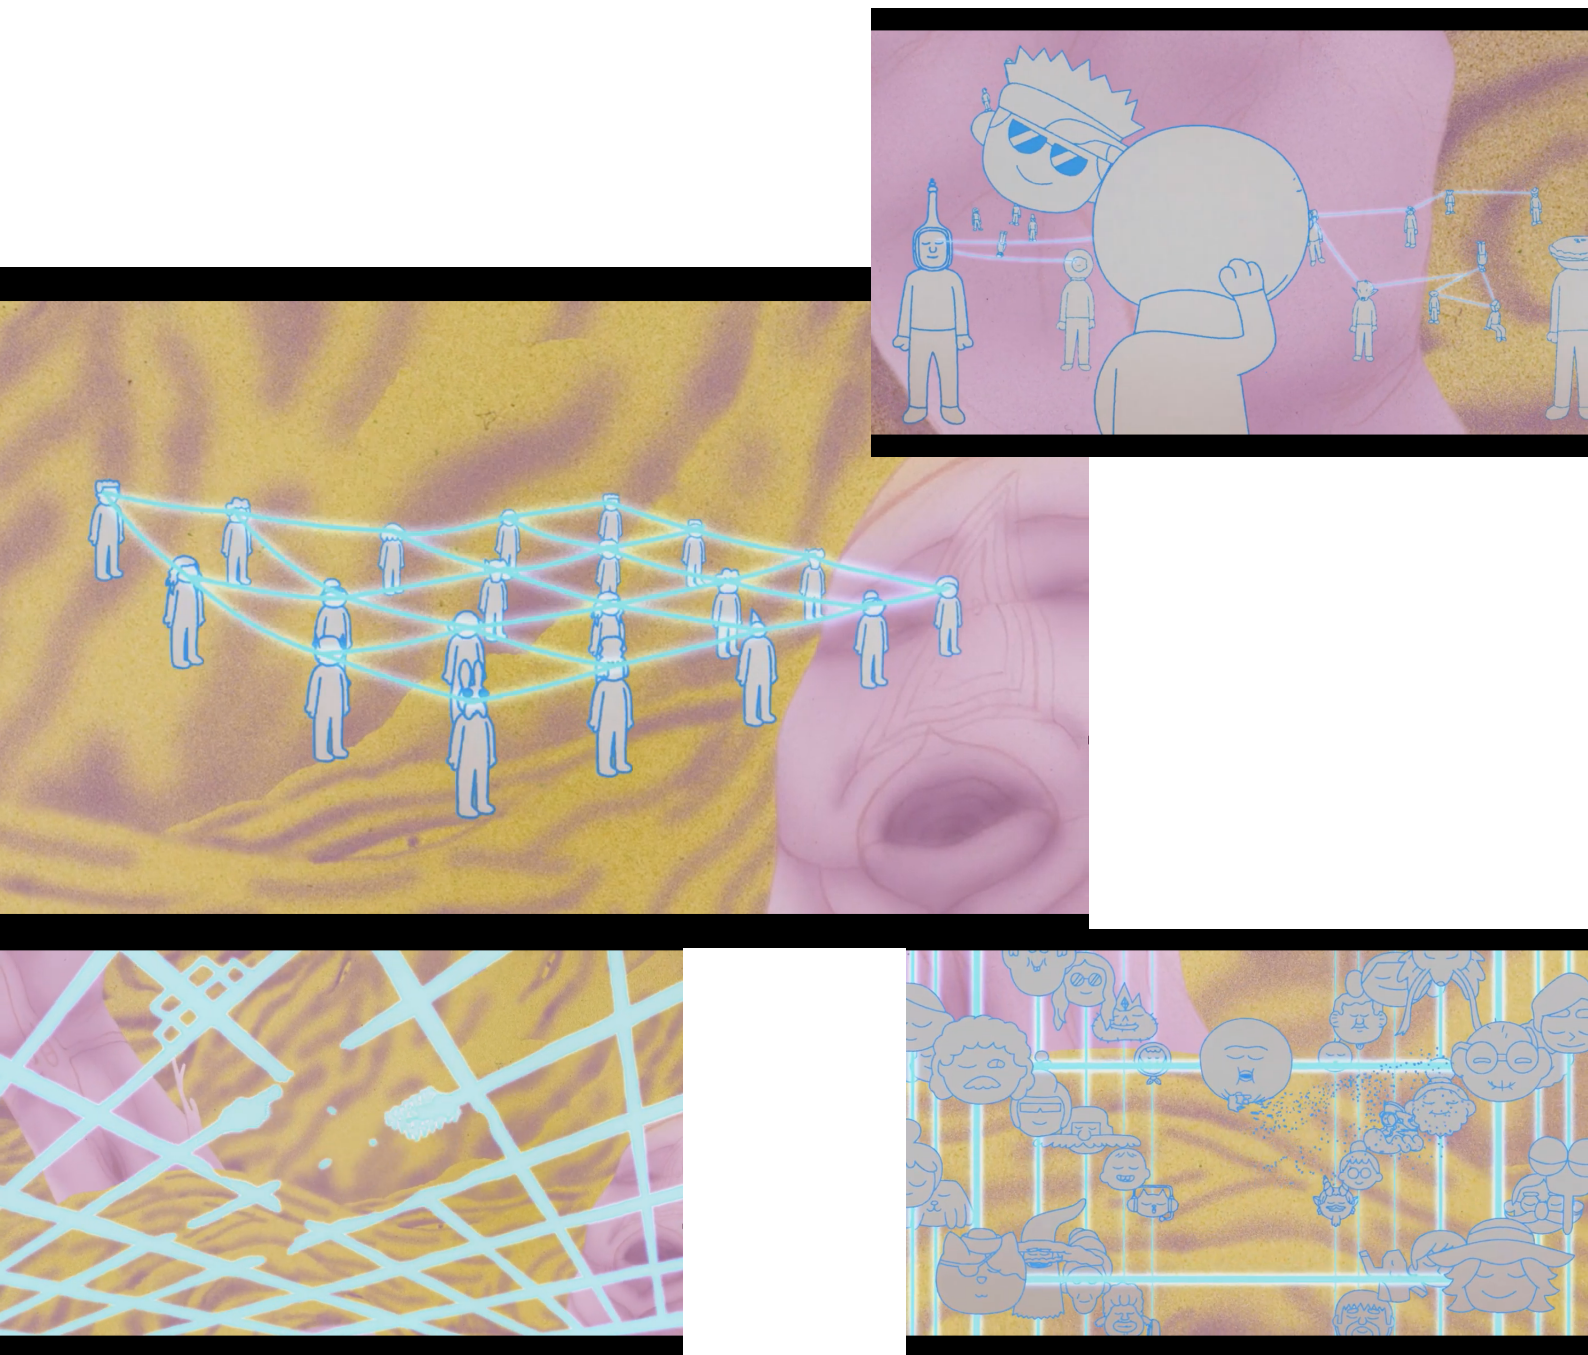

Those dots, between the formation, they link up in the Merkabah shape. Yes, just that.

Let's rise above the Maya Grid (consciousness of suffering) and create.

with an open heart)

The Gene Keys system is evolving:

We each have coordinates between our planets, that make up the different sequences of your Gene Keys path.

The last one is called the Star Pearl, and I interview Bella Krystal about it, only to discover Richard Rudd, the creator has channeled the next steps: the Star Pearl is a Star. A star of David. Our own Merkabah.

So you can find the coordinates of each of our Six Points, and manifest the energies around and within you. Understanding mine has cleared a lot of confusion and to this day (and forever) will reinforce my understanding of my work, galactically and genetically, between my soul and my human heart in this incarnation.

Schumann Resonance

Read about it

Use it in your house to reharmonize the space
and yourself, to Earth:

Now, let's look at this imagery and understand this is the same for us, humans. Our physical body emits, and resonates with the frequencies around, we have our own Schumann Resonance. Think of what you're emitting towards others and what you're letting in your own auric sphere on its way to your heart.

Those are facts.

You have an ecosystem. You are the ecosystem.

This is the program I serve on The Shapeshifter: distilling energetics and emitting new shapes within to shift our life:

This work doesn't end here.

We are united.

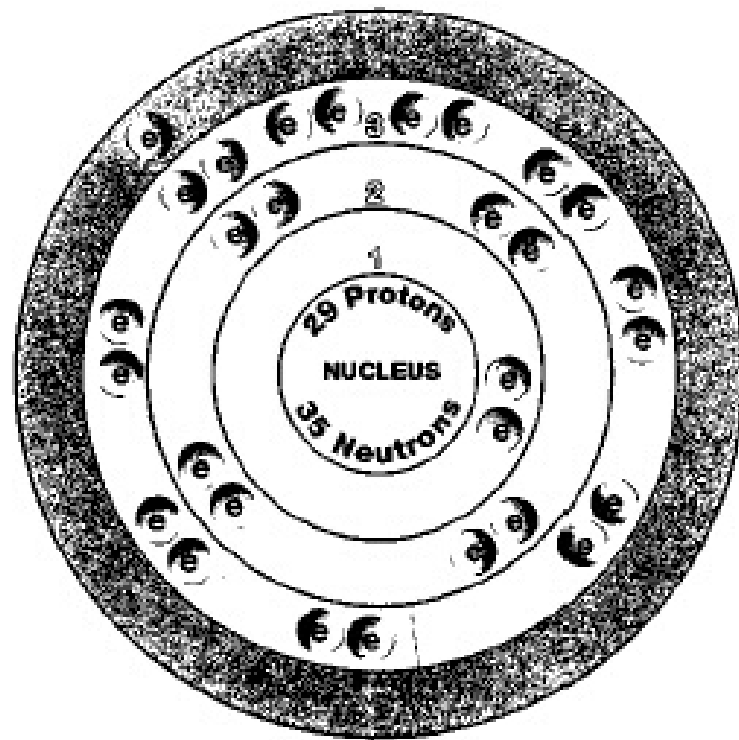

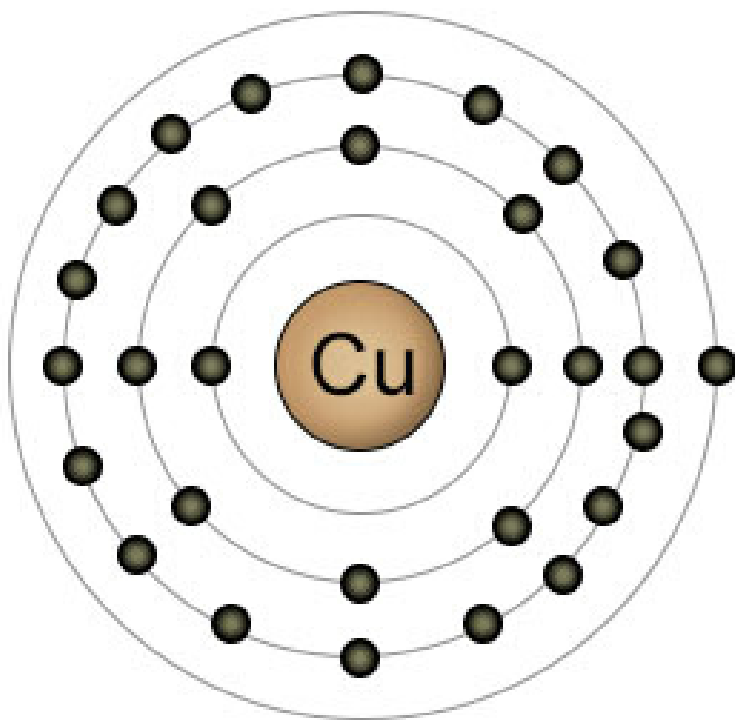

We have a group chat,
join by asking me in an email / dm.

Eventually, we will move like our extraterrestrial neighbours from a carbon-based body to a copper-based body.

Much to think about...

You can get your hands on a piece of copper, or use the copper coins (we have those with the Euro currency) when manifesting, in rituals, etc, it's potent.

Copper: Atomic number 29:

Sorry to go woo- (not sorry) but this reminds me of the Biblical definitions of Angels / Archangels as Wheel within Wheel (Ezekiel 1)

WHEELS. The Merkabah is often called the Wheel of Fire.

We are becoming Angels.

This famous sacred geometry motion is called...
the Merkabah Flower of Life:

This is what we look like when we have allied forces, when we are Unity Consciousness:
